ANSWERS

1. Jukebox Radio¹ routinely prepares, on a daily basis, a projected log of advertisements and announcements to be aired each day. A blank discrepancy report page is attached to the top of each day's schedule so that operators may note any discrepancies from what was anticipated in the logs, and the reasons therefore. To the extent that actual broadcasts differ from what is projected in the daily schedule, operators are expected to note discrepancies in the discrepancy reports and the reasons for them, if known. Certain of these schedules note discrepancies in their attached discrepancy report sheets. Jukebox Radio has in its possession copies of all such schedules, from January 1, 1996 to the present. Schedules prior to that time were discarded in the normal course of business and cannot be reproduced. The schedules in the possession of Jukebox Radio fill approximately twelve large cardboard boxes and will be made available to counsel for the Bureau and Universal for review and copying upon reasonable request therefore.

2. See Attachment A hereto.² Jukebox Radio personnel holding administrative and on-air positions could have been involved in producing or amending the schedules referred to in Answer 1.

¹Throughout these Answers, the term "Jukebox Radio" refers to the operations of FM-103, Inc. and/or Mr. Turro in connection with the operations of FM translator stations W276AQ, Fort Lee, New Jersey, and W232AL, Pomona, New York, and the business relationships with WJUX(FM), Monticello, New York, from October 1994 to the present.

²Attachment A hereto is as complete a list as Jukebox Radio's records permit of its employees, past and present. This list has been provided to the Bureau and the Judge but withheld from the other parties to avoid commercial harm and interference with Jukebox Radio's business. We do this based upon Universal's history of hiring away Jukebox Radio employees. We request that the Bureau hold this list confidential and not otherwise make it available publically. In the event that the Bureau or Universal establishes a valid reason to provide this list to other parties, counsel to Mr. Turro would like to enter into a confidentially agreement with respect to this information.

3. See Answer 1.

4. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

5. See Answer 2.

6. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

7. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

See Answer 1. for the period of time after October, 1994.

8. See Answer 2.

9. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

10. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

11. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

12. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

13. See Answer 1.

14. The schedules described in Answer 1. indicate advertisers. To the extent that the Bureau or Universal seek information concerning Jukebox Radio advertisers which is not publicly disseminated, or could interfere with commercial relationships, Mr. Turro objects on the grounds of burden, relevance and unnecessary harm. Mr. Turro is amenable to entering into a stipulation which describes the general scope of Jukebox Radio's business with respect to its advertisers, location and area of operations without revealing sensitive commercial information to competitors which would be of dubious evidentiary value.

15. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

16. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

17. While Jukebox Radio has produced live remote broadcasts from time to time, it has not maintained particular records as to sponsorship of them.

18. Jukebox Radio believes that it has prepared the quarterly issues/programs lists for WJUX, Monticello, New York, at least with respect to programming provided by Jukebox Radio, for the period of time commencing in October, 1994, to the present. Jukebox Radio understands that such issues/programs lists are publically available at the studios of WJUX, Monticello, New York. Jukebox Radio has retained copies of the issues/programs lists from 1995 to the present.

19. Joseph Lazizza has prepared most or all of the issues/programs lists referred to in Answer 18, and he is the only Jukebox Radio employee currently known to have done so.

20. See Answer 2.

21. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

22. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

23. Commencing approximately at the beginning of 1995, FM-103, Inc. assumed control of Jukebox Radio at approximately the same time it implemented commercial operations. See Answer 2.

24. Information relating to events prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

25. See Attachment B hereto, which includes copies of all political broadcast sales records in the possession of Jukebox Radio.

26. Q-Media, Inc. was an engineering/consulting firm owned and operated by Mr. Turro commencing in 1986, in which Mr. Turro was the only employee. Q-Media has been completely inactive for approximately three years.

27. Jukebox Radio obtains two 56 Kbps circuits between its studios and those of WJUX, Monticello, New York. Jukebox Radio has no documents concerning repair to those circuits. Jukebox Radio obtains one 8 kHz circuit between its studios and the Fort Lee translator. Jukebox Radio has never maintained a circuit between its studios and the Pomona translator. Jukebox Radio has in its possession copies of a substantial number of telephone bills, the volume of which would fill approximately two large cardboard boxes, for the time period from approximately January, 1996, to the present. Those bills will be made available to counsel to the Bureau and Universal for inspection and copying upon reasonable request. Information concerning telephone-related documents prior to October, 1994, are irrelevant to this proceeding.

28. None

29. Mr. Turro believes that some telephone calls were forwarded from the studios of WJUX, Monticello, New York, to the studios of Jukebox Radio at some point in time. Mr. Turro has no explanation as to why that call forwarding took place. He did not arrange or authorize it. Mr. Turro took steps to end that call forwarding practice shortly after he discovered it by bringing it to the attention of MMBI personnel.

30. Unknown

000576

31. Mr. Turro has not reimbursed MMBI for any of its legal expenses. Mr. Turro has no personal knowledge of what MMBI's legal expenses have been for its response to Norman Goldstein in 1995 or in the current proceeding.

32. None

33. By letter dated June 6, 1995, the Commission's Chief, Microwave Branch, advised Jukebox Radio that its use of station WMG-499 had become inconsistent with the terms of its license and required it to cease such operations. While Jukebox Radio has no record of the exact date upon which it ceased using WMG-499, it believes that it did so shortly after receiving this letter. That station has not been in use since sometime in the summer of 1995.

34. None

35. See Answer 18.

36. Attachment C hereto includes copies of all documents in the possession of Jukebox Radio regarding the purpose, formation, ownership and legal status of BCCBF.

37. Attachment D hereto includes copies of all documents in the possession of Jukebox Radio regarding the purpose, formation, ownership and legal status of FM-103, Inc.

38. See Answer 14.

39. See Answer 14.

40. Jukebox Radio possesses no written records of any communications with Eugene Blabey.

41. Jukebox Radio possess no written records of any communications with Carol Montana.
